REPRESENTATIVE THORPE ADVISES CAUTION TO NORTHERN ARIZONANS IMPACTED BY WINTER STORM

STATE CAPITOL, PHOENIX (Tuesday, March 3, 2015) – Representative Bob Thorpe expressed concern for lives and property affected by the lengthy winter storm in Northern Arizona:

“The unusual five days of rain, snow and even flooding have caused serious conditions for many of our fellow Arizonans. I have even heard a report of a home on Lake Meadow Drive in the Lake Mary Meadows community being flooded. Coconino County is providing assistance and sandbags for those who need them. Please be cautious while travelling as well.”

Residents can contact the Coconino County at 219 E. Cherry Ave., Flagstaff, AZ 86001, Local Phone (928) 679-7120, or Toll Free (877) 679-7120.
